Accenture Alumni Network: Making the most of your experience

Imagine a place where everyone's on your wavelength and on your side...

A network of more than 300,000 people who share interests, ideas and connections...

A hub of inspired thinking, amazing career opportunities,
and hundreds of exclusive benefits.

The Accenture Alumni Network is a global community of like-minded professionals – for people like you.

Just log on, enter your details, and you'll have instant access to...

Exclusive thought leadership webcasts and executive panels.

Invitations to networking socials and office receptions.

You can even RSVP and see who else is attending through the network.

You can reconnect with former Accenture colleagues using the Alumni Directory. And, if you've lost their details, you can use the advanced search to track them down.

You'll also find job opportunities posted by Accenture, fellow alumni, our clients and other recruiters.

If there's someone you know who'd be perfect for Accenture, you can take advantage of the Accenture Alumni Referral program. It's a quick, easy and rewarding way to introduce new talent to the business.

Or, if you'd like to return to Accenture, you'll discover our latest career opportunities, along with support from dedicated Accenture alumni recruiters.

They'll help you navigate the process – from start to finish.

You also have the option to set up personalized job alerts so opportunities come directly to your inbox.

You can also access discounts and special offers available in the alumni marketplace.

Finally, "Alumni Spotlights" allows you to read up on what great things fellow alumni are up to in their professional careers and personal lives ... imagine what opportunities we can create, together.
